

Every year Heart for Africa works towards giving a child an education, shelter, food and clothing. This fight is made possible by the generous support of people like you.

Kerri Pomarolli and Ron McGehee are committed to take action and will travel with Heart for Africa in August to Swaziland. They will see firsthand the needs of these children and hope that in some way they will help change lives.

We're asking you, today, to help Kerri and Ron reach their goal by making a donation so that they can travel to Swaziland. Through the generous gift of friends and family they are 70% there! We hope to make their goal by the deadline date July 5, 2009.

Help Kerri and Ron help others by making a simple donation.

Ron and I are so unbelievably blessed by the generous support we've received for our Africa Adventure coming up in Aug. We were able to book our plane fares and we're about 70% to our total fundraising goal ! Praise God! We're excited and scared and all those other emotions but we know God is going to do big things over there and I know I'll be coming back to share it all with you guys. Thank you so very much for keeping us in prayer in the next months. Here's to "Never saying Never!" When we do that I'm convinced God laughs out loud! - Kerri
